THE MAGIC OF DONATING

BY PAT & KAREN GRIFFIN

Donating time and money to an organization is a personal choice. The organization must be one you believe in as well as their benefits to the community.

Thus, for us it has been Hospice of Yuma for many years. Our relationship with HOY began over 30 years ago. We have both seen the amazing work that has and is currently being done. Some of this work cannot be done without donations.

A large number of Hospice of Yuma patients are non-insured or under insured. The care they receive however is the same as the care insured and private pay patients receive. This is where monetary donations become vital. They help offset the enormous cost of equipment, medications and other necessary services needed to maintain the patients' comfort level. Each dollar donated goes into the care of these and their families.

As an added boost to the services offered there are non-monetary aspects of HOY - the volunteer. Volunteers give their time and energy in many ways to ensure that all services to patients, families and the community are never lacking. Every hour of volunteer time is money that HOY does not spend.

Pat and I, besides donating dollars, are also volunteers. Our volunteer time has been important to both of us. We both know how vital our volunteering is not only for the bottom line but also for the patients and their families to continue living in comfort and peace. Giving our time to raise money for Hospice of Yuma is something we have done for many years. Being a Hospice of Yuma Volunteer has touched both our hearts and will always be a highlight of our lives.

We grew up in the 50's when money was tight. Pennies were saved and hopefully all family expenses could be met. In that vein we were also taught that if you happen to have a little extra, there were families who needed a little help that month. Your extra pennies went to that family. Donating time/money to our community was instilled in both of us at an early age. We both learned the importance of giving back.

As adults we are grateful that we are able to continue that tradition. It is the right thing to do. Giving back is more than just an action, it is the feeling that you are helping your small but significant piece of the world to Yuma's only non-profit Hospice.

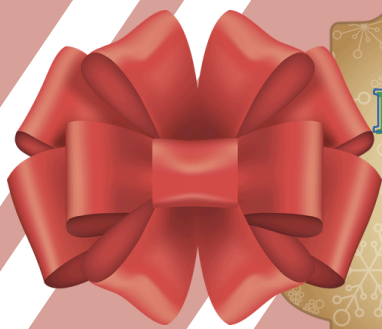

Memorial Gifts

by Barbara & Glen Moss

Making gifts to Hospice of Yuma in memory of acquaintances, friends and family who have passed on is our family's way of ensuring the best use of our resources. Whether the individual who passed away was under the care of Hospice of Yuma or was not affiliated with Hospice of Yuma in any way, gives us the assurance that our efforts are making the biggest impact.

Over the years while serving on the Board of Directors of Hospice of Yuma, or volunteering in the gift shop or just attending fundraising events, we are confident that donations are applied to support those who may not be able to afford end of life services and may not receive adequate care. Any donations made are acknowledged, not just to the donor, but to the family of the memorialized person. Rather than send a card or flowers to acknowledge the passing, we know that our donations are doing double duty – honoring the one who has passed on and providing a way to provide support to those who may eventually be in need of support.

Bereavement & Community Services

With full hearts, we celebrated the third anniversary of our Grief Support Center on September 29, 2025. Each year, we are privileged to welcome new participants—both from our Hospice of Yuma families and from the broader community—into this space of healing and connection. It is truly uplifting to see coworkers, clinical staff, grief support participants, Hospice volunteers, and friends come together for this meaningful annual gathering. Your presence enriches the spirit of the day and reminds us of the compassionate community that surrounds our work. Thank you to everyone who joined us in honoring this special milestone. Your support and shared commitment to healing make celebrations like this possible.

A heartfelt thank-you to all our Voices of Joy Volunteers who shared their gifts throughout our community during the month of September. Your talent, dedication, and generous spirit brighten every place you visit. We are deeply grateful for all you do.

Director's Corner

A MESSAGE FROM JOHN WILLIAMS, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

From the day of our founding 44 years ago Hospice of Yuma has been a mission-driven nonprofit dedicated to serving the Yuma Community. For many years Hospice of Yuma has been recognized for providing high quality end of life care to all those who chose us for service. The reputation and community trust that has been built for over four decades is due to our vision, independence, and nonprofit status.

In the 1980s and 90s, nonprofits provided all hospice care in the United States. But being a nonprofit hospice has become a rarity these days. Today, the field is dominated by for-profit organizations including those owned by private equity firms. Their priority is to return value to shareholders and/or owners; our priority is to deliver the highest value to you, your family, and our community.

When you are thinking about future healthcare needs for you or a loved one, there are some crucial factors that we ask you to consider when looking to find a hospice provider.

How to Pick a Hospice

Deciding how you or a loved one wants to be cared for during life's last phases is one of the most important choices you will ever have to make. But there are ways to make that decision easier, by thinking ahead about what matters most to you or your family member. Undoubtedly, location is a key factor, as are any recommendations from your physician. Here are some other variables to review as you make your choice:

- What support services will you and your family receive and how often?
- Will a specific hospice accept you, even with complex and intensive medical needs?
- What if you or your family do not have insurance or other financial means?
- Are staff specially trained in end-of-life care?
- Does the hospice have a full-time physician solely focused on the care of their patients?
- How comprehensive is bereavement support to help you and family members deal with grief after loss?

The answers to these questions may differ based upon whether you select a nonprofit or for-profit hospice.

The Nonprofit Difference

Studies show some real variations in cost and quality of care between nonprofit and for-profit hospices. Much of the discrepancy comes down to how and where each directs their money. As background, all hospices are reimbursed the same by Medicare, which covers most hospice patients.

- Regardless of a person's diagnosis, their requirements for care or services, or how much care is provided, Medicare pays every hospice the same per-day rate. The fewer services provided, the larger the financial gain.

The National Partnership for Hospice Innovation (NPHI) commissioned one of the most recent surveys comparing care of Medicare patients by nonprofit and for-profit hospices. The ensuing 2019 report—compiled by Milliman, the global actuarial and consulting firm that conducted the study—found the following:

- Nonprofit hospices provided patients with 10% more nursing visits, 35% more social worker visits, and twice as many therapy visits as for-profit hospices.
- For-profit advertising costs were 300% higher than that of nonprofit hospices.
- Nonprofit hospice patients received three times as many physician or nurse practitioner visits per day than for-profit patients.
- Nonprofits spent more per day on direct patient care than for-profits.
- Nonprofits directed more resources to non-reimbursable costs—such as bereavement services, volunteer programs, and palliative care programs—than for-profits. On bereavement services alone, for-profit hospices report spending less than half of what their counterparts do.

Of course, there are many for-profit hospices available but how many of them are good choices for terminally ill patients and their families. The Milliman report findings are consistent with other reports on the Medicare hospice benefit from the Department of Health and Human Services Office of Inspector General, Government Accountability Office, and the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission. All found significant differences in the quality of care and use of Medicare dollars between nonprofit and for-profit hospices.

Who We Are

At Hospice of Yuma, our mission is to support everyone patient and family in the community that is facing a life limiting illness and to ensure that all in the community have access to grief counseling and support services through our Grief Center. Regardless of a patient's terminal illness, insurance coverage, or their ability to pay Hospice of Yuma is there to provide the highest quality end of life care and support services available. In fact, last year Hospice of Yuma spent $100,000.00 to provide care for patients who lacked insurance and had no money to pay for their services. Hospice of Yuma also provided $97,000.00 in grief counseling and support services to individuals and families that could not pay for the service.

For those who may be considering hospice care for a loved one we encourage you to use the tools developed by CMS to measure hospice quality. The CMS Medicare Compare Tool is a great place to go to look over area hospices to see who is providing the highest quality care. The website <https://www.medicare.gov/care-compare/>. Click on the hospice tab and enter your city and zip code. We have attached the most recent Medicare compare scores to show you how Hospice of Yuma rates among area providers. We are deeply grateful for every individual who donates their time with us. Our volunteers don't just help keep the shop running—they help keep our mission alive.

Fund Development

Give the Gift That Lasts All Year Long

Giving all year round is one of the most powerful gifts you can offer. Each year, we actively seek donations to support our events and provide compassionate care for our charitable care patients. Every donation stays right here in our community—helping fund vital needs such as medical equipment, medications, and other services related to a patient's diagnosis.

With a daily care cost of $170.00 per patient, your support makes a direct impact on the lives of those we serve. As the only nonprofit hospice in town, your contributions help us continue our mission of providing compassionate, dignified end-of-life care—regardless of a patient's ability to pay.

Make a Lasting Difference Through Planned Giving

One of the most meaningful ways to support our mission is by including us in your trust or estate plans. Leaving even a small percentage of your estate can make a world of difference. By informing us of your gift, we can honor your wishes and ensure your legacy supports future generations in need of care.

Now More Than Ever, Your Support Matters

With five for-profit hospice providers now operating in our town, it's more important than ever to know the difference. We've proudly served this community since 1981, with one unwavering goal: to provide comfort, compassion, and dignity at the end of life.

We're incredibly grateful to our community for the continued support that has allowed us to serve thousands of patients over the years. To remain the only nonprofit hospice in the area, we must secure ongoing funding for patients who are uninsured or unable to pay. Get Involved. Make an Impact.

There are many ways you can support our mission:

Join our Legacy Partner Program
Participate in our "I Make a Difference" Campaign
Sponsor our P.K. Hodges Annual Golf Tournament
Consider Trust or Estate Giving

Every act of generosity brings us closer to a future where no one faces the end of life alone. Thank you for standing with us in compassion and care. If you are interested in supporting, please contact Alysia Munoz at 928.343.2222.

LET YOUR LEGACY BE Quality of Life

Hospice of Yuma's Legacy Partner Program was established over 10 years ago. The program is designated to provide hospice care to people who may be facing a terminal illness and who may not have the ability to pay for hospice care.

Your donations help Hospice of Yuma, a non-profit organization, continue to serve the Yuma community as we have for the last 44 years. Your donations also help cover the costs for a patient's day of service, pain medications, medical equipment, medical supplies, and a compassionate team of professionals.

Please consider joining our Legacy Partner Program and help Hospice of Yuma continue their mission to help those who need hospice care and continue to be here for generations to come.

To be part of our Legacy Partner Program, the minimum donation is $170.00. This would make you a Bronze Partner. We also have the Silver, Gold, Platinum, Benefactor and Founder Partner. You can make your donations in whole, quarterly or monthly payments. The option is yours.
